Texas Tour

Last month I accompanied André on tour to Texas. Our regular sound board operator was having his first baby so I was filling in for him.

We did three programs, two of which were on an Air Force base. The shows went well and there were over 600 attendees and over 70 decisions for Christ.

Face Painting

Last week Hannah and Joshua and I volunteered to help out at the Luis Palau CityFest by painting faces. The face painting booth was very popular and had a constant line. There were approximately 16 painters, and between just the three of us we probably painted 35 or more butterflies, dog faces, snakes or the like.

Catch Up

Otherwise, while at the office, I've been concentrating on completing the dozen or so unfinished projects which have been in various states of unfinishedness. This should eventually allow me to focus on a few key projects, such as the Pocket Gospel Illustration web site, without the distraction of needing to jump back to some other task.

Thanks for your part.
