Hello ministry partner,

I would like to thank you for your dedicated support in helping us reach the 14,000+ international students who study at Arizona State University. It's been an eventful year of goodbyes and transitions but God has been faithful through it all.

One of the highlights for me was getting to know some of our students better on our Spring Break trip to San Diego (beach photo). The best part was how this afforded me the opportunity to go through a complete gospel presentation on follow-up appointments with both a Chinese and a Taiwanese grad student who went on the trip.

Here are highlights of this year from each of the other Bridges staff members:

"I was sitting with my Arabic roommate and asked him what his favorite part of this year was. He had done a lot of exciting things but he said that his highlight was getting to know me. It was great to hear that because he's a quiet guy, and is very devout in his Islamic faith. It's confirmation that Jesus is pursuing him."

"My highlight was God bringing students who were already believers and wanting to grow this school year. It's encouraging that two were involved with Bridges in other States. It's an answer to prayer to see God bring us more believers. Please pray for their spiritual growth and that they would share their faith with fellow students."

"Every Sunday, my Japanese friend Mayu and my believing Taiwanese friend Jenni would come with me to church and we would sit each with our own Bibles, one in Japanese, one Chinese, and mine in English. Mayu didn't know anything about Jesus but she was hungry to grow. I loved seeing God build friendships across cultures and how he used my church to share such good news with my friends."

-Jessey Warren (staff pictured at church with Mayu and Jenni).

As we look forward to next school year, we are already seeing God build partnerships and cast vision with things we've never done before. He's also brought along new teammates, which is a huge answer to prayer! We couldn't do what we do without your participation in reaching the nations at ASU with the good news of Jesus. Thank you for your support and prayers!
