March 2019

Since I last reported a lot has happened with our international student ministry at Arizona State University. Some highlights of the last few months include:

Winter international student conference: One of our students who attended has become a Christian, partially as a result of attending.

Spring Break trip to Page, Arizona - including visiting Horseshoe Bend and Antelope Canyon: 25 students went with us - half of which were new acquaintances. Pray for continued relationships with the new ones and that they would become involved with Bridges on a regular basis.

Five new Christians this semester! I'm in a Bible study with a sixth who identifies as a Christian. He has not yet made the distinction between being a "Christian" because of works and being a Christian because of what Jesus did for us on the Cross. Please pray that "D"'s eyes will be opened to being saved by faith in Jesus, alone.

As we approach the Easter season and the end of the school year, please join us in praying that student's hearts will be receptive to the meaning of Easter and all that God has for them in a relationship with His Son.
